

Books for All Saints School

Nanketewa, Ghana

Please donate used children's books.

Pre K through Middle School

This Catholic school in Nanketewa, Ghana is in a very poor, remote village. There are not enough books for each student and no student is permitted to bring them home since they are so costly to replace. Although they have their own language, every class is taught in English. We hope to send them enough academic and pleasure books to create a small library for the students and parents. Thank you for your help!
